Welcome

Welcome to HRRMC's Dermatology Clinic. We are pleased to offer a wide range of dermatological services to the Upper Arkansas Valley. The dermatology team treats common and complex conditions of the skin, hair and nails. We prioritize conducting thorough exams and addressing all of a patient's concerns, while building strong relationships.

Dermatology is a unique field in medicine not commonly found in rural communities. With board certifications in dermatology as well as dermatopathology, dermatologists Dr. Kathryn Echols and Dr. Sophia Rangwala are able to approach skin disease and skin cancer from both the clinical and microscopic perspectives. By examining a condition this way, the dermatology team is able to obtain a more complete picture of an issue, allowing for the most accurate diagnosis and individualized treatment plans for the patient. The Dermatology clinic is excited to offer these extensive services to our community.
