Venable Creek Trail to waterfall — Westcliffe | 4 miles

On the east side of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains near Westcliffe, Venable Creek plunges swiftly and steeply from a high-mountain lake to the Wet Mountain Valley. This scenic waterfall is only 2 miles up from the trailhead, making for an easy day hike. From the Comanche/Venable trailhead, hike a short distance uphill to the Rainbow Trail and left to the Venable Creek Trail. You'll see a spur to the left leading to the falls.
